Action: 2.2 Consideration of an Application for a Class B4 (On-Premises Consumption - Special Conditions) Liquor License for Chalky's, LLC at 500 New Era Road

Carl Martin was present to respond to Commission questions. He explained why he was requesting the special condition of a lowered entry age, including his own experiences with billiards, the resurgence of the sport, the desire to develop youth leagues, providing an alternative for youths in the area, and his hopes for the business’ future.

Commissioners inquired about the hours when the youths would be on the premises for practice, the opening date, how the matter of legal guardians would be addressed, operational questions about the facility, what action was appropriate at this time, and how handle the votes upon the criteria and the overall approval or denial.

The City Attorney commented on requirements and liability with regard to the use of legal guardians.

MOTION: Approve the individual criteria in one motion

Motion by Jeff Doherty, second by Jessica Bradshaw.
Final Resolution: Motion Carries
